

Chandra S. Bhatnagar is a Senior Attorney Advisor to Chair Jenny R. Yang of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Chandra joins the Office of the Chair after spending the past decade as a Senior Staff Attorney in the Human Rights Program of the American Civil Liberties Union where he led the program's litigation and strategic policy advocacy on racial justice and immigrants' rights issues. Prior to joining the ACLU, Chandra was a Staff Attorney and Skadden Fellow with the Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund, where he directed the South Asian Workers' Project for Human Rights, a community-based project providing legal services to low-wage workers from South Asia. Previously, he was the Assistant Director of Columbia University's "Bringing Human Rights Home Project," where he worked to improve conditions affecting post 9-11 detainees and efforts to organize a coalition of human rights defenders in the U.S. Chandra has also worked internationally, partnering with a leading NGO in India in applying human rights standards to their anti-child labor/bonded labor campaigns, and domestically with the Center for Constitutional Rights, where he did immigrants' rights and police accountability work, and served as the interim director of the Ella Baker Summer Intern Program. He received a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and an LL.M. with a focus in international human rights from Columbia Law School.
